

Admec Logistics enters into JV with Brigantine Intl Holdings Ltd., HK

Continued from Page 3

The proposed name of the new venture would be BRIGANTINE ADMEC CONTAINER SERVICES (INDIA) PVT. LTD.

In his address to the gathering, John C Brennan, Managing Director, Brigantine International Holdings Ltd., said that it has planned to make a foray into the Indian market by forming a Joint Venture with Admec Logistics Ltd., for serving the Indian trade better.

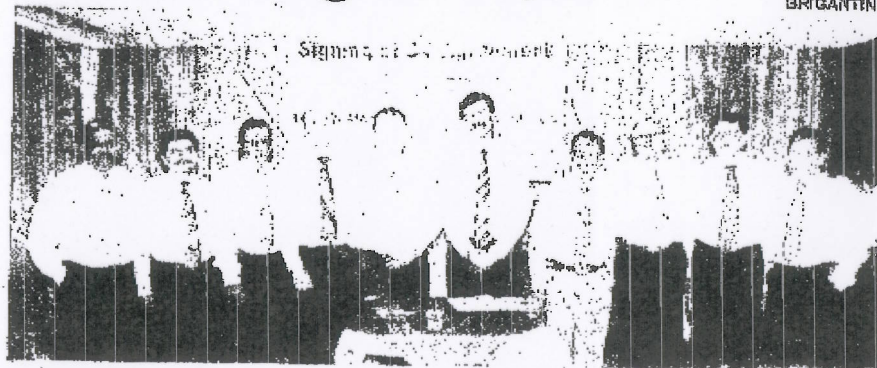

Admec Logistics Ltd, a Transworld Group Company, incorporated in 1989 is engaged in the business of Container Park Management, Transportation, Ship Repairs & Chandling and CFS Operations since its inception.

Mr. S.Mahesh, Vice Chairman of Transworld Group, who is very optimistic about the new venture said, "During the span of last 20 years, the business activities of the company have spread into various locations with branches at JNPT, Kandla, Mundra, New Delhi, Dadri, Ludhiana, Chennai, Tuticorin & Kolkata especially in container management and transportation business."

Admec Logistics Ltd., a ISO certified company having their full-fledged state-of-the-art facility at JNP CFS area as well as other 10 locations like in Mundra, Kandla, Chennai, Tuticorin and Dadri. The company is confident to offer its full-fledged services all over the country by 2018, Mr Mahesh expressed. The main objective of the company is to provide qualitative service catering to International Standards. The activity would also comprise of having a Reefer body facility which is of first of its kind in India, Mr Mahesh said.

Mr S Ramakrishnan, Transworld Group Chairman, wishes both the companies with all his support and hopes this venture will fulfill the industry need.

Mr. Shyam Manjrekar, CEO, of the new company and who is heading the team with last 10 years is very optimistic about the new venture. While talking to Daily Shipping Times, Mr Manjrekar said, "After a long process and our best efforts from past 14-16 months of planning, Admec Logistics Ltd successfully achieves this agreement for better reach of the country's need. After this pact, Admec will now offer the best of ship reaping, reefer and container management services."

Team for better future: Mr. Sanjay Trevady, Mr. Bharat Kokal, Mr. Norman Fernandez, Mr. Hans Henrik, Mr. John Brennan, Mr. S. Mahesh, Mr. Shyam Manjrekar, Mr. V. Ramnarayan, Mr. Michael K, Mr. Rajesh Chalke

The occasion was also graced by Mr.V.Ramnarayan, Vice Chairman & Managing Director of Transworld Group, all CEOs / senior officials of various companies of Transworld Group & Maersk.

Brigantine Holdings International Ltd., a 100% subsidiary of AP Moller-Maersk Group, has developed a solid foundation in the container service and marine service industries since it was established in 1956. With over 50 years business experience, it has offices in Hong Kong, Shenzhen, Guangzhou, Xiamen, Shanghai, Suzhou, Qingdao, Tianjin, Ningbo, Dalian, Taiwan, Malaysia, India and Vietnam, for serving its clients from all around the world.

Brigantine excels in providing dry & reefer container repair and refurbishment, as well as, trading of brand new, pre-owned and remanufactured containers. The company also supplies container spare parts to local and overseas clients. The marine services division of Brigantine provides 24-hour on-board maintenance and vessel engine repair services to ship owners and operators. It also provides flexible and reliable quality maintenance and repair services for crane and yard equipment in container terminals.

Brigantine has been certified by Lloyd's Register Quality Assurance (LRQA) in Hong Kong with certificates for Quality Management, Occupational Health and Safety Management, and Environmental Management, in full compliance with ISO 9001, 18001, and 14001 standards.